

15TH SESSION OF THE PACIFIC ISLANDS CLIMATE OUTLOOK & STAKEHOLDER FORUM

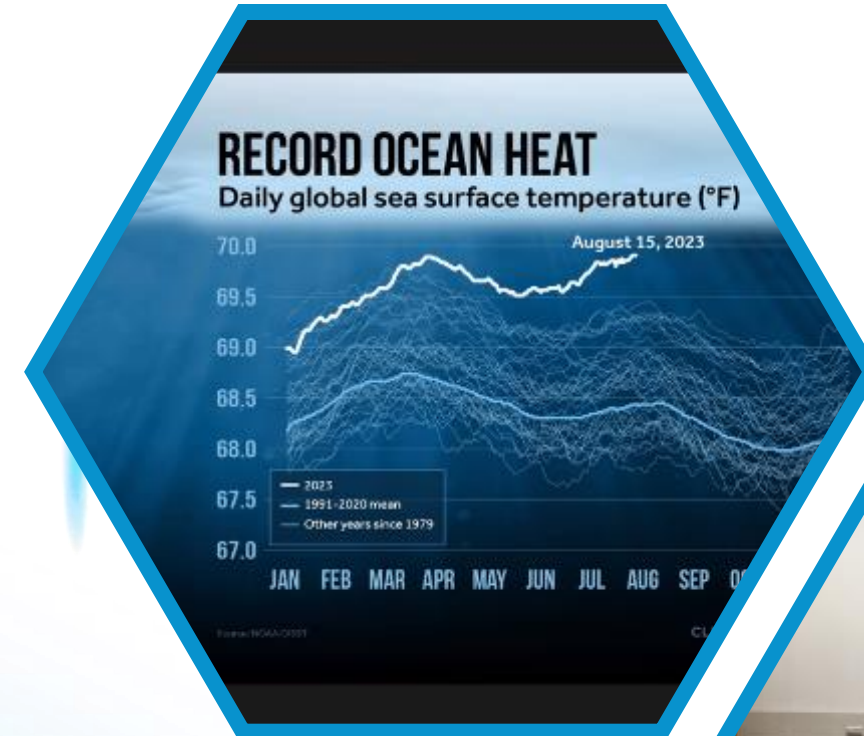

PICOF-15

14 - 15 OCTOBER, 2024

HYBRID

IN-PERSON: NUKU'ALOFA, TONGA

ONLINE: ZOOM

CLIMATE IMPACTS

Max Sitai

Solomon Islands

Solomon Islands Meteorological Service

IMPACTS - FIJI

Flooding in Nakorovou, in the Central Division on 15th May, 2024.

Source: National Disaster Management Office, Fiji

Landslide at Talenaua, Serua in the Central Division on 15th May, 2024.

Source: Fiji Roads Authority

Flash flooding in Waidradra, in the Central Division on 26th August, 2024.

Source: Fiji Roads Authority

IMPACTS - PNG

Source: Post Courier

- Yalu Bridge cut off leaving stranded customers
- Connecting flights out of Nadzab disrupted
- Business along the highlands highway disrupted

The remnant of the Yalu Bridge (Post Courier).

Extent of the damage to the Yalu Bridge (Post Courier)

IMPACTS - PNG

- Bumbu river bursts it's banks
- Bumbu flooding washes away part of classroom (The National, September 10 2024)

Flooding from Bumbu River in Lae, Morobe Province washed away part of a classroom for Emmanuel Elementary School (Post Courier).

Extent of the Bumbu River flooding (Post Courier)

IMPACTS — SOLOMON ISLANDS

One of Two ships which sank during strong winds causing rough seas. 28 people were rescued before the ship sank to the bottom of the sea.

Date: August 2024

Source: Ngella Forum

Strong wind destroy a family house in one of the Islands in Western Province.
Date: September 2024

Source: Western Province Media

Police in Gizo have rescued four people who jumped from a ray boat due to rough seas between Gizo and Vella la Vella Island on 19 August 2024.

The rescue came about when a 60-horse Yamaha boat encountered rough sea and four people jumped overboard due to the boat nearly capsizing. A total of six passengers on board with three female adults, two male adults, a 14-year-old boy.

Source: SBM Online

Summary

Sectors Affected:

Infrastructure, Maritime Authority, Rural Community, Road Authority and Transport Authority.

THANK YOU!

m.sitai@met.gov.sb